PLEDGE

December 5th, 6th and 7th mark our second fall fundraiser and this time rather than offering a single theme, we will be offering samples of KRAB's most popular programming in an effort to convince more listeners that KRAB is worth giving financial support to. Beginning at 6:00 am on Fri. Dec. 5, Stu Witmer begins with a special edition of Early Music, with his unique blend of medieval and ethnic music. Then at 10:00am we begin broadcasting a full day of Rhythm and Blues.

We'll cover everything from the music that gave birth to R&B, to the early doo-wop sound on up to the more commercial and popular Motown. On Sat. we'll be featuring North American Folk and included will be two segments of live music - once at noon with local Irish musicians featuring traditional dance music and again at 8:00pm with a live performance by the Washington State Old Time Fiddlers Assoc. Then on Sunday we'll be playing jazz all day long beginning with the earliest vintage jazz in the morning and working our way forward through the history of jazz including big bands, bebop and modern ending up late at night with Herb Levy's offering of avant garde jazz.

The crew's pretty busy right now so I guess it's up to me to tell you ...

DETAILS

A NATIONAL HOLIDAY?: In the midst of the holiday season, the culture tends to overlook the fact that not everyone celebrates Christmas. On Dec. 25th we will be broadcasting a number of special programs about Jewish heritage and tradition as well as a discussion about the emotional impact that the Christmas season has upon Jewish people. See Dec. 25th for specific program details.

TOWARD INTIMACY: RELATIONSHIPS, SELF-IMAGE AND SEXUALITY: The keynote address given at a recent sexuality and disability conference held in Seattle with Susan Daniels editor of Sexuality and Disability Journal. Wed. Dec. 10 at 9:30pm.

A COMPOSITE CHRISTMAS CAROL: Paul Stanbery re-broadcasts this year his recreation of virtually every word of Charles Dickens' classic holiday fable to include seven famous Scrooges (spliced together from legendary readings of the past), eloquent narrators, a spirited all-star cast, outstanding music and Dickens' glorious English prose. Aired 10:00am Dec. 17th through 24th.

SIT DOWN - I WANT TO TALK TO YOU: This program explores the relationship between lesbians and gays and their parent and friends. A program on sexuality with information for all listeners. Produced by Dean Robertson. 9:30pm Dec. 17th.
